Ron Colombo of Dearborn, Mich., for the second year in a row, followed up his U.S. Nationals win by taking the top spot in the Bladder Grabber fast combat tournament.

The 37th running of the most prestigious AMA Fast Combat contest drew 15 entries to Snohomish, Wash., for the traditional weekend of speed, noise, mayhem and the honor that very few Combat fliers in the world hold: Bladder Grabber winner.

Gene Pape fuels his 1/2-A Combat plane as Beaver State Combat Team member and pitman Mike Hazel stands by.
